PAYMENT & TERMS

You can pay in 4 different ways

You prefer to pay everything up front, or you live outside France.

- Online payment
- Bank transfer

You prefer to postpone the exhibition fee,
and you live in France.

- Cheques
- Cash

Exhibition fees will only be collected in July.

If you pay by deferred payment (bank transfer, cheque, cash) you have 10 days to send us your payment.

In case of non-selection of the application by the selection jury, a transfer of the amount of the exhibition fees will be returned to the artists concerned.

Online payment

Select this method of payment in the electronic form, let yourself be guided and pay the full fee to validate your registration.

Bank transfer

You are requested to make a single payment for the registration and exhibition fees. The bank details are sufficient for any transfer.

Please write your artist's name in the wording of the transfer, and enclose your bank details with the application form, for reimbursement in the event of a refusal.

Paypal transfer

You have a PayPal account. You can make your payment in a single transfer for the registration and exhibition fees.

With your PayPal app or on the web, send your payment to:

KEY INFORMATION

2. JURY

The selection will be based on photographs of the submitted work. The jury reserves the right to select only one work in the sections where many works may be proposed. In case of refusal, the exhibition fees will be returned to you, (registration fees and bank charges are kept). The jury will be held within one month of the closing date for entries. The results will be communicated within 2 months following the jury.

If the work is accepted, the visual submitted will be used for the exhibition catalog. Please make sure to provide a high definition and correctly framed visual.

3. REPRODUCTION RIGHTS

Each artist agrees not to ask the Salon d'Automne for reproduction rights for the work reproduced in the catalog, on our website, or via any media dealing with the Salon d'Automne. However, for authors who are members of the Society of Authors in Graphic and Plastic Arts (ADAGP), the operating conditions provided for in the conventions concluded by the Salon d'Automne with the latter will apply.

4. KEYBOARDING OF GIVEN DATA

The information contained in the application form will be held in our computer files. Name, address and phone number will be reproduced in the catalogue (except specific request from your own) and possibly on our web site, in accordance with the French laws.

You may access your data, rectify it, request its deletion or exercise your right to limit the processing of your data. You may withdraw your consent to the processing of your data at any time.

To exercise these rights or if you have any questions about the processing of your data in this system, you can contact us if necessary. If, after having contacted us, you feel that your «Data Protection» rights have not been respected, you may submit a complaint to the CNIL.

5. COMMUNICATION

The communication of the exhibition is ensured by the Salon d'Automne before the event. Each artist entering through the limited and privileged community of the Salon d'Automne commits them self to mention the Salon d'Automne in their own communication on social networks, for the events concerning it directly, in particular in case of invitation or selection to exhibit at events in the province or abroad organized in collaboration with the Salon d'Automne.

6. INSURANCE

The association of the Salon d'Automne and its service providers are not responsible of the works submitted and exposed, and disclaim any responsibility in relation to theft, fire, damage, etc... We strongly recommend artists to take a personal insurance, from the day of deposit to the withdrawal. The artist and his insurer waive any recourse against the Association du Salon d'Automne and its service providers.

7. CATALOGUE

Each selected artist, will receive a 2023 catalogue, during the exhibition. Any further catalogue must be payed.

8. IDENTIFICATION OF THE WORKS

Please, Include on the back of your work : artist's name, title and match marks (up, down).

9. TRANSPORT

Transport and handling of artworks are the exclusive responsibility of the artists or their carrier. The work must be unpacked, re-packaged and handled by you or your carrier. No packaging may be stored on-site.

10. EXHIBITION

Only the work (or works) presented to the 2023 board, accepted, and printed in the catalogue, may being exhibited. Any other work will be refused. We remind you that, in the exhibition space, any presence of business cards or personal catalogues with the works will not be accepted. No presence of exhibitors will be allowed during the hanging of work without prior agreement with the operational team.

11. ACQUISITIONS

An information service will inform visitors. In the event of the sale of an artwork, it is customary that the artist, thanks to their exhibition during the Salon d'Automne, becomes a donor to the organization in order to maintain its voluntary mission of promoting art and artists. A donation of 15% of the price of the work to the Association du Salon d'Automne is strongly ordered. A tax deductible receipt up to 66% will be sent in return. We ask you to take this into account while developing your price. The Salon d'Automne thanks you for your understanding and your support.

12. WITHDRAWAL

After the end of the period for withdrawal, at the end of the exhibition, which will be communicated later, works will be taken by the 'Société Nouvelle Morard' storehouse, which will charge the artist for the costs of guard and transport of their artwork. The Association declines any responsibility.

13. CANCELLATION

In case of force majeure, the organizer will immediately notify the exhibitors. In such a case, there will be no refund or allowance for damages. Considered as cases of force majeure, the events having this qualification admitted by the jurisprudence as well as, and whatever their cause, are events making it impossible to exploit the site (flood, explosion, fire, decision by an administrative authority of the closure of the site, storm, lightning, ...).
